BILL FOR S.F. NAVAL BASE UP TODAY

Political Prison Conditions Told by Irish Leader—Government Action on Strike—Will Quell Rebel Mexicans—German Crisis Past—American Newspaper Man Killed in Germany.

OAKLAND, April 12.—The navy appropriations bill, containing the Phelan amendment providing $1,000,000 for the San Francisco bay naval base, is to come before the Senate for passage tomorrow, according to a telegram received by the Oakland Chamber of Commerce this morning from Joseph E. Caine, managing director.

Caine wired that the bill had been reported out of the Senate committee on naval affairs last Friday evening and that the way had been cleared for its consideration on the floor, with passage probable tomorrow.

IRISH LEADER TELLS OF POLITICAL PRISONS

PARIS, April 12.—George Gavan Duffy, envoy of the Irish republic, is bringing to the attention of the peace conference the treatment of the political prisoners in Dublin. He received yesterday a telegram from Dublin saying:

"Over 100 republican prisoners incarcerated in Mount Joy prison in Dublin as common criminals, many being detained on suspicion without charge, have been on a hunger strike since Sunday, April 4. They demand the observance of the agreement obtained by Bishop Macrory and the lord mayor of Dublin whereby the English government undertook to recognize the special status of political prisoners."

GOVERNMENT WILL ACT ON STRIKE

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The government today was preparing to move against the nation-wide railroad strike.

Attorney General Palmer, returning from a campaign trip through Georgia, was to take up the reins and direct the government's activities to safeguard the transportation of the nation. The attorney general was expected at the White House to secure the viewpoint of the President as to the course to be followed.

Strong pressure was being brought to bear upon the President for immediate action to quell the strike.

MEX TROOPS MOVE ON REBEL STATE

AGUA PRIETA, Sonora, Mex., April 12.—The state military received a report this morning that General Blanco was marching overland from Chihuahua with 2000 soldiers and should reach the Sonora line within the next few days. Word also comes from Nogales that the telegraph and telephone lines between that city and Hermosillo, the state capital, had been cut at various points during the night and

PETER LARSON BEATS RECALL CANDIDATE

Peter Larsen, El Cerrito trustee, whose recall was demanded by the El Cerrito Taxpayers' League, was elected to the office of trustee over the recall candidate, Hagen, by the decisive vote of 303 to 169, in the city election last night. The recall of Larsen has been the cause of many factional disputes for some time in the city and a hot fight was put up for his recall.

The office of city clerk was won by Alice Morse over F. A. Wright by a vote of 238 to 163. Mrs. Grace E. Castner was defeated for the office of city treasurer by Frank Walsh by a vote of 245 to 191.

Following is the list of winning candidates for the Board of Trustees and the number of votes received by each: George Conlon, 297; Philip A. Lee, 277, and Patrick Steinberg, 237. The losers in the race for trustee were: George Adams, John Sandvick and E. N. Wuelzer.

School Bond Fight Gets Interesting

Interest in the Richmond school bond election of next Wednesday is beginning to reach a high heat owing to the sudden organized opposition to the efforts of the Board of Education to secure $565,000 for the needed new lawns and building. Large advertisements are appearing in the local newspapers attacking the plan to purchase so much real estate and also rapping Mayor James N. Long for increasing the amount of the issue.

Boosters for the harbor bond election several months ago deny strenuously that they are opposed to the bonds because many of those now favoring the school bonds fought the harbor issue.—Oakland Tribune.

MARTINEZ TRUSTEE MEMBERS ELECTED

At the election for members of the board of trustees at Martinez last night, T. D. Johnston, Frank Roberts, Frank Jones, J. Tyler and C. Bush were elected to fill the places on the board. The number of votes cast for each were as follows: Johnston, 457; Roberts, 426; Jones, 389; Bush, 186, and Tyler, 187.

SCHOOL BOND ELECTION IS POSTPONED

School Board Makes Error in Publication of Election Call Which Would Invalidate the Bonds, and Therefore Has to Do It All Over Again, at Expense of About $150—Election May 12.

Due to a technical error in the call for the bond election, the interchanging of polling places Numbers Six and Seven, which would invalidate the bonds, it will be necessary to issue a new call, and the election will not be held on Wednesday, April 14, 1920. The Board will issue a new call at once.

R. R. SLATTERY,
President.
J. O. FORD,
J. N. LONG,
Board of Education.

The above notice, handed in to The News last night by the Board of Education, explains itself. The publication of the election notice will all have to be done over again, necessitating a postponement of the election for about a month—May 12, we understand, being the date now agreed upon.

The election notice was published in the Independent for the required legal number of times and cost somewhere from $100 to $200, probably nearer the latter figure. The News suggests that the Hon. Board of Education bear this unnecessary expense itself, which it no doubt will do, for if it did not know enough to get up a correct notice it at least should have known enough to consult somebody who does. We also trust this is not a sample of the business acumen of the Board, and don't think it is.

And while on the subject of school bonds and the like, the following communication is at hand from an esteemed fellow citizen and taxpayer who favors the issue, for the reasons which he sets forth in his letter. The News takes pleasure in giving publicity to all such matters, as a matter of public education, which is badly needed here, but desires to say to its correspondent that as far as we have been able to find out those who object to the issue do not do so for any lack of willingness to give the Richmond schools all the money they need to keep abreast of the times and the growth of the city. The objections come because of a very lax system, there being no check upon those who spend the money, and no disposition on their part to ever take the public into their confidence, only in the most general sort of way. That is where the objection lies, and nowhere else. The Richmond people are in favor of any amount that is necessary, whether it is a thousand dollars or a million dollars, but, quite naturally, they want to know a whole lot more than has been told them as to just where the money is to go and the details thereof as near as can be ascertained. This information has not been forthcoming—hence the objection. The communication follows:

Richmond, April 12, 1920.

To Editor of The News:

Dear Sir: Having been a reader of your paper almost two years, ever since I located in Richmond, and having admired the stand you have always taken in the welfare and advancement of Richmond, I noticed in The News a few days ago that you say you have not been made acquainted with the full particulars as to the intentions of the school trustees, as to the proposed school bond issue, which appears to be rather large. But who doubts the wisdom of preparation for the coming growth and enlargement of

NEAR EAST DRIVE AT SANTE FE TODAY

Today will be Santa Fe day for the Near East drive, and a committee will be sent there to canvass the shops for donations. During the noon hour, Mr. F. D. Sanderson of Martinez, who is county chairman of the drive, will speak to the workers explaining the conditions in the countries devastated by the Turks and give an estimate of the needs of the suffering peoples.

The committee which has been appointed to conduct the work at the Santa Fe shops consists of the following drive workers: Mrs. E. H. Harlow, Mrs. Percy Neale, Mrs. A. B. Ledgerwood, Mrs. H. A. Stiver, Mrs. W. A. Boone, Mrs. Edgar Cunningham, Mrs. Mae Cunningham, Mrs. U. S. Abbott, Mrs. W. L. Ballenger, Mrs. Wm. Neely, Mrs. C. S. Stenwick, Mrs. Clara Wilson, Miss Elizabeth Peres, Miss Winifred Conwell and Mrs. J. T. Narbett.

The following committee has been chosen to carry on the drive at Point Richmond: Mrs. H. D. Chapman, Mrs. George Fredenburg, Mrs. Wm. Lucas, Mrs. J. O. Ford and Mrs. W. S. McRacken. Others will be chosen on the above committees today.

Committee Heads Meet

A meeting of the heads of the committees who are conducting the work among the different organizations of the city was held yesterday and plans were discussed for the drive. Those present at the meeting from the different organizations and industries were: Mayor James Long, city chairman; Hiram E. Jacobs, lodge committee; Harry Marcus, business men; Archibald Campbell from the California Cap Works, and Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stiver.

This committee has named the following places where donations to the fund will be taken: Long Drug Company, Sixth and Macdonald; California Market, Eighth and Macdonald; Venus Candy Store, Twenty-fifth and Macdonald; Weldeck's Drug Store, Point Richmond; The Hub Store, Point Richmond, and the Kenny Cigar Store, Washington and Standard.

Parr-McCormack Steamer Docks Here

The steamer Centralia, chartered by the Parr-McCormack Steamship Company, is now docked at the local municipal wharf to load a cargo of 500 tons of cement from the Cowell Cement Company, near Martinez.

A barge will be loaded at the wharf Saturday with a consignment of steel from the Western Pipe and Steel Company here.

CHAUTAUQUA PLANS ARE STARTED

Tentative Plans for the Coming Entertainment Well Under Way—Council Asked for $150—The "Chief's" Dreams.

We arrived "home" last night, after council session, to a rude shock. We found the "Chief" sound asleep at his typewriter, and it took quite an effort to awaken him. The reason for this was that the "Chief" was right in the middle of a wonderful dream, a dream replete with marvelous undertakings completed—vast projects well done—but let the "Chief" tell it.

The Dream

"Why did you wake me? Couldn't you have waited just a few minutes longer? Why, I was seeing things long looked and wished for—things I have fought and slaved for—FINISHED. I saw a complete harbor where leviathans of the seas were anchored. Hundreds of men were at work. Thousands of dollars were rolling into the city's coffers. I saw a beautiful new and adequate subway. Twenty-third street was a marvelous boulevard. Large and handsome steamboats were plying between the Richmond ferry and San Francisco. The storm sewer was working just like a regular one. Macdonald avenue was a long white way—a worthy rival to the famous path of gold. I saw—but what's the use, your rude awakening was an awful shock, for I realize now that it was only a dream."

And it must have been a shock, for that was the last we saw of the "Chief"—he went home in a fog of disgust, and we cannot blame him. What a beautiful dream he must have had.

The Council

That plans for the next Chautauqua are well under way was evidenced last night when Superintendent of Schools Helms appeared before the council and asked that body for $150 to help defray preliminary expenses. It was pointed out that the last Chautauqua did not pay expenses, but the deficiency was not met owing to an agreement with the management whereby another contract was signed for this season with a guarantee of $1600. It is intended that the coming show shall be given ample publicity so that it will be assured of financial success. In this connection it must be remembered that no Chautauqua is brought to a city for financial gain, but purely for its educational advantages, and for this reason alone should be well enough patronized to assure the payment of the guarantee. The Chautauqua this year will be held from June 9 to 12, and although no definite program has been announced, we can be assured of an entertainment of the highest character, and one we should all boost for and support.

The High School Cadets are to hold their outing at San Pablo Canyon during next week, and have requested the council for the loan of fifty rifles for drilling purposes. This request was granted, and the Home Guard was requested to see that the guns are on hand and in good working order.

The bids for the improvement of Wall avenue to the city limits were opened and proved to be as follows: J. F. Staniger, $28,686.12; Fred Meyer, $35,045.07. The awarding of the contract to Meyer was held up for one week to allow the city engineer time to check up on the estimated cost.

The request of E. Howard for pay for the eleven days he was absent from fire duty on account of sickness was granted.

QUICK CALCULATION

The superintendent of the Cincinnati, O., zoo was making arrangements to feed the 27-foot python and needed men to hold the reptile during the repast. His advertisement was answered by a serious-looking darky.

"What we want," said the zoo man, "is a strong, husky chap to help hold the big snake while we feed him."

The darky's jaw dropped, his eyes stuck out like golf balls and he gasped:

"Yo'—yo'—want a man to do what?"

"We want a man to help hold the big snake. What's the matter? Don't be frightened, there'll be ten of us—"

"Hol' on!" gasped the darky, making for the door. "Hol' on! Dey may be nine o' yo', but dey won't be ten o' us."

COUNTY MEAT MEN FORM ASSOCIATION

Organization of the Contra Costa Retail Meat Dealers' Association was perfected at a meeting held at Martinez Sunday. The organization went on record as favoring joining with the government in aiding the sale of cheaper cuts of meat. The association will look after the interests of the retail meat men but will not restrict competition amongst them. It will take up the battle against Oriental meat shops and handle other matters of unfair competition and restrictions to the trade.

A delegation of San Francisco and Oakland meat dealers was present and made talks upon the benefits of organization. The meeting had been arranged by J. B. Muir. The new officers are: President, Charles Dash; vice president, Fred Martin of Martinez; secretary, E. Forwick of Richmond; treasurer, J. E. Lawrence of Antioch; marshal, A. Aljets of Crockett.

The next meeting will be held at Antioch on May 8. Those present from Richmond were: O. R. Ludewig, E. Forwick, George Olsen, John Deatsch, Thomas Morgan and John Sendicich.

County Tract Day Set For May 15

MARTINEZ, April 12.—At a county league high school meeting here Saturday schedules for the baseball season and a track date were fixed. The annual track meet will be held at Crockett May 15. Teams will be entered by Martinez, Antioch, Danville, Crockett, Concord and Brentwood. The baseball season will start May 22. All schools in the league have accepted an invitation to participate in a track meet to be held at Richmond May 8 and all will enter teams.

Company to be allowed to improve the sidewalks and curbs on Maricopa avenue, from Twenty-third to San Pablo, was granted.

An arc light was ordered installed at the corner of Larson and McBride avenues.

Dr. Blake appeared before the council to protest the nuisance caused by the parking of horses on the avenue. The result of the protest was the instructing of the city attorney to draw up a parking ordinance. The motion was placed by Councilman Lane.

R. R. OFFICIALS OPTIMISTIC ON STRIKE

Railway Heads State Conditions Are Much Improved in the Southern Part of the State, Many Having Returned to Work—Local Conditions Are Little Improved—Strikers Give Reasons for Action.

According to the report from the local offices of the Santa Fe Railroad, the railroad officials are optimistic regarding the outcome of the strike of yardmen and train crews employed in switching work. All through the southern part of the state the workers on the Santa Fe are returning to their jobs and the officials are confident that like action will soon be taken in this part of the state. Through the south practically all kinds of freight are being handled, and it is expected that if the situation continues to improve in that section, conditions there will be restored to normal within a few days.

At the local yards little change has taken place. Only non-perishable freight is being accepted, and that subject to delay. Passenger trains are still running on schedule, being made up by train crews from Oakland. Freight trains, also running, are reported to be almost on schedule most of the time. Such freight trains as are made up here are made up with the assistance of a few men from Oakland and San Francisco who are not affected by the strike.

Reports from the offices of the Southern Pacific Company show that at many points along their lines the men are returning to their jobs. Advertisements are being issued by the companies for men to fill the places left vacant by the strikers and apparently they are getting the men.

J. H. Dyer, general manager for the Southern Pacific, stated yesterday:

"At the present rate of progress it will be only a few days until our normal switching forces are restored. Our offices at 65 Market street, to which applicants are directed, were swamped this morning. Over sixty applicants for jobs as switchmen were received before 9 o'clock. Among the applicants are many experienced switchmen. At Los Angeles so many new men were employed it was possible to send some to outside points."

Yardmen State Reasons

The local yardmen's association, at a meeting last night, gave out the list of reasons why they have had to leave their positions with the railroad, which they will forsake for good and find oter jobs paying better money if the railroad companies do not meet their demands for better wage. The larger part of the men, they say, are working for $5.11 and $5.44 a day, while the general public is of the opinion that they are receiving far more. What the men are now asking for is a wage of around $7.90 and $8.16 a day, according to whether the man is a foreman or a helper. They are also asking time and a half for overtime, Sundays and legal holidays. In some cases of different jobs than mentioned the wage demanded is more or less.

THE PAPER OF THE WORKING PEOPLE

THE VALUE OF HOME GARDENS

During the war city dwellers learned that home gardening was not merely a fad or fancy, but entirely practical and sensible. Urged into planting gardens while our troops were overseas by Mr. Hoover's slogan that "Food will win the war," thousands of tons of fresh, wholesome food were produced on the lots about city homes.

The urge of patriotism is lacking this year, but the high cost of all food products is an incentive for every city family that has a plot of ground even a few feet square to enlist it in the fight against the high cost of living. The danger of food shortage is almost as great as during the war. Farmers are reducing acreage and decreasing production and the situation is alarming some of the best informed economists of the country, who do not hesitate to say that unless production of food is speeded up, there is danger of urban populations being restricted to meager rations.

The experience gained with the war gardens can now be used against high prices and food shortage. Enough vegetables can be grown on a very small plot of ground to supply the table many times and eliminate the necessity of buying them from a scarcely supplied market.

Here in Richmond where the city lots are large in all outlying portions of the city, where there are thousands of vacant lots that can be cultivated, and where the soil and climate are well adapted to vegetable growing, the people should be able to effect a large saving in their food bill this summer by intelligent cultivation of home gardens.

This season gives every appearance thus far of being favorable to the garden crops. Home gardening will pay in vegetables, it will pay in health for the gardener and pay in satisfaction of having responded to the universal demand for larger production of the elemental necessities.

HIS CONSERVATIVE POSITION

"Too bad, wasn't it, about Mary Queen of Scots?" asked a meek looking man who had not resided long in the neighborhood, dropping in on the Sit and Argue Club. "They cut off her head, you know."

"Say, looky here!" a trifle indignantly demanded old Uncle Rizzidew. "Are you trying to make fun of us, or don't you really know anything later than that?"

"No, sir; I am not trying to act smart," was the modest reply. "And I am fairly well acquainted with current events, thank you. But as almost every time I venture a remark that has the slightest contemporary meaning I tread on the toes of some of my wife's kinfolks, or collide with a brittle-tempered hyphenated American of some variety, or knock against someone's neutrality, or tramp on the tariff, or cut contrary to some venerated citizen's weather signs, or run across some enthusiast's pet preferences in the matter of future punishment, I have finally and firmly decided, in the interests of peace and harmony, to hereafter entertain no opinions about anything less than several hundred years old."

Automobiles and movies may finally put baseball on the bum, but playing to the grandstand will continue a favorite American custom.

While we are exercising toward our fellow pilgrim through this vale of tears the Brotherhood of Ran spirit, we wish the tarnation galoot would exercise a wee bit of it occasionally toward us.

S. F. LABOR REFUSES TO ENDORSE JOHNSON

An unsuccessful attempt to obtain the endorsement of Hiram W. Johnson for president by the non-partisan political committee of the San Francisco Labor Council was made by Johnson supporters at the meeting of the committee Saturday night.

For more than an hour Paul Scharrenberg of the state housing and immigration commission, and John P. McLaughlin, state labor commissioner, argued in favor of endorsing Johnson.

The committee, consisting of fifty-six representatives of Labor Council unions, voted to sustain the action of its sub-committee in refusing to endorse Johnson at the joint meeting of representatives of the Labor Council, the Building Trades Council and the California State Federation of Labor, which was practically a repudiation of the endorsement of Johnson made at that meeting.

William T. Bonsor, president of the San Francisco Labor Council, read a telegram from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, which said that it was not the intention of the A. F. of L. non-partisan political committee to endorse presidential candidates.

The large number of Hoover supporters present at the meeting took the position that the advice of Gompers should be followed and that the committee as such should not endorse any presidential candidate, leaving individuals free to support any presidential candidate they desired.

In spite of repeated efforts to get the committee to endorse Johnson, the committee adjourned without endorsing any presidential candidate.

The non-partisan political program of the A. F. of L. to elect "friends of labor" to the Senate and House of Representatives was unanimously endorsed.

The committee also went on record as opposed to the formation of a national labor party.

JAPANESE LOVE TALE STARS VIOLA DANA

The scenario of "The Willow Tree," to be shown at the Richmond theater today, was written by June Mathis, author of many successful screen plays, from the original manuscript of the stage production. A cast of unusual excellence supports Viola Dana, the star, making the picture the outstanding success on the screen that it was on the stage.

The story has to do with Ned Hamilton, a young Englishman, who quarrels with his fiancee, and then learns that she has engaged herself to another and a richer man, a Lord Fawkestone. Crazed with grief, he leaves London for far-away Japan, resolving that he will bury himself in the land where the paper lanterns glow, and forget everything. Once in Japan he meets an old wood carver who has an image of a beautiful girl, about which there is a weird legend. Hamilton at length buys the image and carries it home with him, where that night he tests out the legend that the image will come to life if there is a mirror placed in its arms. True to the legend, the image comes to life, and Hamilton falls deeply in love with it. Later, when the war comes, the Japanese maid has herself changed into the image again, and Hamilton returns to England.

This is the tender and appealing story which is woven into a photoplay of the rarest charm. Always back of each laugh, in comedy of the most delicious kind, is a heart throb for the little Japanese maiden who loved a man of an alien race. It is the sweetest of fantasies, and the prettiest of legends. It is the Orient, the reddish-purple heart of ghostly Japan.

School Bonds

our city? We hear some say why all this land? Now, if we stop to look at the crowds of children at the various schools and the little "2x4" playgrounds—take the Lincoln school, the Fairmont and Stege schools for a sample—it would surely dispel any doubt as to the wisdom and need of more playgrounds.

As to buildings, we surely want something which we can point to with pride and say, "That is one of our Richmond schools." When I first came to Richmond I was often taken out for a drive to see the sights of California and on all occasions in passing a school the building was pointed to with pride and I was told that it was one of our California schools. I have purchased two properties here since then and am a taxpayer, having no children to send to school, as my family is all grown up, but am in favor of the school bonds, and also the harbor bonds, or anything for betterment of our city.

Respectfully,
A citizen and taxpayer,
H. W. HUNT.
1109 Nevin Ave., Richmond.

P. S.—When I first came to Richmond I made a few friends among the wet element, and in speaking of the papers I read I was advised The News was no good, was too much of a knocker, but it was not long until I discovered the reason for the feeling against the paper. It was the stand you took for the abolishment of that curse of mankind—booze. If you think the above worth printing, do so. If not, the wastebasket will surely hold it. Wishing you success in all your efforts for the upbuilding of Richmond, I am, as ever, an admirer of right.

ROAD BONDS SOLD; WORK TO PROCEED

MARTINEZ, April 12.—The board of supervisors today sold $1,250,000 of county highway bonds to Girvin & Miller of San Francisco, for par and accrued interest. There was no string attached to the bid, as was the case with a bid received a week ago. This means that county highway work in all sections will proceed and be rushed to completion as soon as possible.

As the result of the sale of the bonds, the supervisors signed up the following road contracts today:

With Bates & Borland for the upper part of the San Pablo Creek road.

With O'Brien Brothers for highway from Franklin canyon to Hercules.

The bid of S. C. Rogers for the construction of a highway from Richmond to Giant was laid over one week.

The county surveyor was ordered to prepare plans and specifications for the lower potrion of the San Pablo creek road.

O. C. Marr, L. C. Brown and E. A. Spatz were re-elected on the board of trustees by heavy majorities.

P.G.&E. Adjustment Is Due May 1

Announcement that wages will be adjusted by the Pacific Gas & Electric Company by May 1, and a statement of the company's position in the two questions raised by the electrical workers who struck have been made by John A. Britton, vice president and general manager of the company.

Striking employees of the company met Sunday in San Francisco, read reports from nearby centers and voted to continue the walkout. Britton's statement, in part, follows:

"The Pacific Gas and Electric Company is now conducting and has been for a week past, a thorough investigation of the wage situation, with the idea of making equitable adjustments by May 1."

Interchurch World Movement Meeting

Several noted speakers connected with the Interchurch World Movement will address the people of Richmond at a meeting which will be held at the Wesley Methodist church Thursday evening at 7:30. The meeting is the first one of the sort ever held in this city.

The meeting has been made a public affair due to the fact that the Interchurch World Movement is now recognized as being of world importance and is the biggest movement of the kind ever attempted by the churches. The meeting Thursday night will be in charge of P. M. Sanford, who is directing the movement in this city.

JUNK THIEVES ARRAIGNED

Fred Setoro and M. P. Wright, who were arrested here some time ago on a charge of having stolen junk from the old Carey brickyard, were arraigned in Judge Odell's court yesterday for a preliminary hearing. Both men pleaded not guilty. The trial date has not yet been set.

SMITH RELEASED

John Smith, who was taken by the police on a charge of drunkenness, was released by Judge Odell yesterday after promising to be on his good behavior in the future.

A Warning To All Speeburners

Four flagmen have been killed and seven injured in the past three years by the very autoists they were employed to protect, according to a statement just issued by the "Safety First" committee of the Oakland Traction Company, which has issued a plea that autoists forbear from trying to "beat the train" at crossings.

The casualties were all at the important downtown crossings. The victims were all struck by autoists and not by trains.

"It is a sad commentary that these men were killed and injured by autoists when their job is to protect autoists from train accidents at crossings," says the committee.

Traction Co. Short On Ties

Along with its other troubles, Oakland is now faced with a serious shortage of railroad ties.

This fact was discovered by the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, which sought 30,000 ties for improvements during the coming year and can only find 15,000, to be delivered in ninety days. A shortage of lumbermen in the woods is said to be the cause of it.

The company is fast using up its supply of seasoned ties and may be forced to use green ones unless it can find some way to build up a reserve supply.

R. R. Strike

I. W. W. Charge Denied

The men out here deny emphatically the charges that their action is the result of I. W. W. activity, or of a preconceived plan to break the old organizations. They state that their sole reason for walking out is that the present wages that they are receiving will not enable them to decently support their families. They state that they have taken action simply because the brotherhoods seemed unable to aid them in getting their demands, not because of any desire to break up the older organizations. No attempt will be made, they say, to interfere with traffic.

A series of birthday parties were held at the Miller home in Stege Saturday afternoon and evening. In the afternoon a party was given for Misses Iola and Johnsie Miller and in the evening for Mrs. Miller and her daughter, Mrs. Davies. Those present at the children's party were: Fern Center, Margaret Broberg, Andrew Broberg, Anna Nidreck, Lloyd Sherwood, Jack Prid, Buster Davies, Irene Gerits and Lo Marsh. Those at the evening party were: Miss Blanche Johnston of Pittsburg, Miss Hazel Davis of Berkeley, Mr. and Mrs. Nielson of Oakland.

An advertisement of a Richmond merchant is getting to be such a rarity that it creates quite an excitement when one does occasionally appear.

We have quite a high fence around the 2x4 ranch, so the neighbors won't see us breaking the Sabbath by digging around in the flower gardens and give us away to Brothers Sanborn, Boyer and Little. But the work has to be done, and we have narry a minute to do it on week days.

Judging from the report of our reporter on the city council beat, an attendance at the average meeting nowadays is about as exciting as fishing all day without a bite. There is lots to do, but for some reason they never do it. Board meetings at Concord, Walnut Creek, Antioch, Crockett and Pinole are bullfights in comparison.

It is as much as one's life is worth to take a ride out Twenty-third street. All friends and newcomers are advised to walk. It is both quicker and safer.

Recall Circulars Are Supressed

EL CERRITO, April 12.—Advocates of the recall of Trustee Peter Larsen, which is being voted upon at El Cerrito today, began a distribution of circulars, as soon as the polls opened, in which were printed alleged disloyal statements Larsen is said to have made during the war period. The statements were obtained from the files of the department of justice, which has objected to their publication. Larsen said this morning he had notified the department of the new attacks and that the department had informed him it was sending a representative to El Cerrito to stop the giving out of the circulars.

CRISIS OVER ON GERMAN SITUATION

LONDON, April 12.—The crisis in the relations of France and Great Britain over the independent military measures of the French in Germany was greatly eased, if not ended, by the exchange of notes between this city and Paris, according to belief expressed by officials of the foreign office today.

The British foreign office interpreted the Milerand note as a promise that France hereafter will not act on her own initiative in matters relating to the execution of the Versailles treaty.

AMERICAN KILLED WHILE MAKING ESCAPE

BERLIN, April 12.—Paul De Mott, an American newspaper man, alleged to have been connected with the recent Communist movement, was shot and killed while attempting to escape from the Wesel prison, according to advices from the foreign office to the American mission today.

CREWS DESERTING PASSENGER TRAINS

NEW YORK, April 12.—The story of being "strike-bound" in the foothills of the Catskills on the Chicago express of the Erie road, when it was abandoned by its crew at Port Jervis, N. Y., was told by passengers on arrival here this morning, ten hours late. A fireman sent out from Jersey City on an outbound train aided the engineer in finally bringing in the stalled train.

A "mob of railroad men" met the express when it reached Port Jervis, according to the passengers. They swarmed about the engine and dragged the fireman to the ground, they said.

The rest of the crew endeavored to persuade the strikers to allow the train to proceed to Jersey City. This was refused and the strikers shouted that the only way the fireman could go to Jersey City on the train would be "in a wooden box."
